Ambassador Wendy R. Sherman is Senior Counselor at Albright Stonebridge Group, Senior Fellow at Harvard Belfer Center and former Under Secretary of State for Political Affairs. Ambassador Sherman led the U.S. negotiating team that reached agreement on a Joint Comprehensive Plan of Action between the P5+1, the European Union, and Iran for which, among other diplomatic accomplishments, she was awarded the National Security Medal by President Obama. Prior to her more recent service at the Department of State, she was Vice Chair and Founding Partner of the Albright Stonebridge Group, Counselor for the Department of State under Secretary Madeleine Albright with the rank of Ambassador, and Assistant Secretary for Legislative Affairs under Secretary of State Warren Christopher. In the Clinton administration she served as both Special Advisor to the president and his Policy Coordinator on North Korea. Early in her career, she managed Senator Barbara Mikulski's successful campaign for the U.S. Senate and served as Director of EMILY's List. Ambassador Sherman served as Chair of the Board of Directors of Oxfam America, was on the U.S. Department of Defense's Defense Policy Board, served on the Commission on the Prevention of Weapons of Mass Destruction, Proliferation and Terrorism, and remains a member of the Council on Foreign Relations and the Aspen Strategy Group.
