Netiquette Guidelines

• Respectful
  o Respect privacy: Don’t share personal information (what happens in Bb stays in Bb) o Diverse: Use inclusive language and avoid offensive language o Open: Be open to different points of view o Disagree: It’s okay to disagree, do so respectfully

• Professional
  o Good impression: check your spelling and grammar, use names, say please and thank you o Truth: if you are not sure of your answer make that clear o Kind: If you notice a mistake, point it out politely. o Brief: Clearly articulate your point without being wordy o On topic: Post comments that add to the conversation o Tone. Avoid sarcasm and ALL CAPS

• Scholarly
  o Share your expertise o Cite and link to sources o Explanatory. Support your opinion

References

• Berk R. Top 12 Be-Attitudes of Netiquette for Academicians.
• Connor P. Netiquette: Ground rules for online discussions.
  https://tilt.colostate.edu/TipsAndGuides/Tip/128, Accessed February 5, 2020 • Touro College. 15 rules of netiquette for online discussion boards [INFOGRAPHIC].